

Decatur County Sports Hall of Fame

Purpose

The purpose of the Decatur County Sports Hall of Fame is to recognize outstanding local athletes, coaches, officials and citizens who have made major contributions to the sports tradition of Decatur County.

In addition to excelling in their particular athletic environment, the inductees shall have demonstrated good personal character throughout their life which identifies each as a positive role model.

Nomination

The Board of Directors of the Decatur County Sports Hall of Fame, as well as interested citizens, should nominate candidates using a Nomination Form that provides for a biographical sketch of each potential nominee.

A Nomination Committee shall be appointed by the Board. When directed by the Board, the Nominations Committee shall review and submit a list of viable candidates to the Board for consideration.

For the first two years of organization, a maximum of 4 inductees shall be considered for the honor. Thereafter, the number of nominations will be determined by the Board on an annual basis.

For both nomination and induction into the Hall of Fame, the following is required:

- . A quorum of 80% of the Board and Committees must be present to conduct business.
- . A minimum of 75% yes votes from the Nominating Committee and the Board of Directors.

Criteria for Selection

To be eligible, inductees must be:

- At least 40 years of age.
- A past participant in Decatur County sports or affiliated with Decatur County sports.
- Individuals whose life provided a positive role model in our community.

In addition, inductees must meet one of the following criteria:

- Attended a school in Decatur County, or
- Be a native of Decatur County, or
- Lived in Decatur County for a sufficient length of time to be considered a permanent resident.

Other Considerations

- Any Board member nominated for the Hall of Fame must recuse himself or herself from the Nomination Committee and from the Board vote.
- Any Board member who has a close family member (husband, wife, son, daughter, mother, father, brother, sister) nominated for the Hall of Fame must recuse himself or herself from the Nominating Committee and from the Board vote.
- Voting shall be by secret ballot.

Nomination Forms available at: Decatur County Chamber of Commerce, Bainbridge High School & Bainbridge Welcome Center.
